TEAM CAPITAL BANK PROMOTES BONITA L. RICCABONI

Lehigh Valley, PA, June 3, 2009 -- Team Capital Bank announced that Bonita L. Riccaboni has been appointed Compliance Officer for the Bank and promoted to Vice President. In this role, Riccaboni will organize, strengthen and supervise the Bank's compliance and regulatory activities. Riccaboni is one of three top honor students participating in the first annual Pennsylvania Bankers Association Compliance School, an intensive week-long educational program recently conducted in Harrisburg. The award is based upon Riccaboni's final examination results.

"Bonnie joined Team Capital Bank in December of 2007 and, as Compliance Coordinator for the Bank, has been both proactive and energetic in enhancing our regulatory awareness, especially as we continue to experience tremendous organizational growth", said Richard Boyer, the Bank's Executive Vice President and General Counsel.

A Certified Community Bank Compliance Officer, Riccaboni has more than 12 years of experience in banking. For almost 10 years prior to joining Team Capital Bank, she was Compliance Officer for East Penn Bank. Riccaboni is a 2007 graduate of the Pennsylvania Bankers Association Advanced School of Banking and is a Certified Community Bank Compliance Officer through Independent Community Bankers of America. Bonnie and her husband live in Allentown.
